

REMARKS

On a preliminary matter, it is noted that the previous response should indicate that it is also in response to the April 21, 2005 Office Action. Additionally, the undersigned attorney wishes to thank the Examiner for the telephone call today where she advised of the problem with the claim identifiers in the previous response and the missing terminal disclaimer fee.

This supplemental response changes the claim identifier's from "original" to "currently amended" for claims. Additionally, enclosed is a check for the terminal disclaimer fee that was inadvertently not included with the previous response.

In lieu of the remarks from the previous amendment, all claims should be in condition for allowance. The undersigned attorney requests the opportunity to discuss any perceived problems with the claims, to further explain any of the points raised herein, and to discuss placing claims in condition for allowance. The undersigned can be reached through his direct phone number (312) 223-0010 extension 144. Please advise when you would be available for a telephone conference.

Respectfully submitted,
